North, East, South, West the flower of flour is "Pillsbury's Best." Costs a little more than any other because it is worth more. And it makes more bread, makes whiter bread, makes better bread. Your grocer may tell you something else is "just as good," but it isn't.

SALEM NEWS

EDWARD JETER, REPORTER.

Judge Calloway Brown, of Bedford City, who held the January term of the county court for Judge Moffett, who was confined to his home by sickness, adjourned court Wednesday evening for the present term. Judge Brown made a fine impression on the members of the bar and all others who had business in the court. By his affability of manner, kindness of demeanor and unbiased decisions he has made himself a "persona grata" to our people, and when our judge is sick there is no one more acceptable to our Roanoke county people than Judge Brown.

The Roanoke electric cars were unable yesterday, on account of snow drifts, to reach the Main street crossing, but were compelled to stop on College avenue.

Mrs. W. A. Beagle, who lives in the brick house just south of Hotel Salem, is reported as being hopelessly ill with pneumonia.

Yesterday was the coldest day of the year in Salem. The mercury in Dr. Well's Government thermometer registered 2 degrees above zero about 5 o'clock a. m. The wind blew a gale all day from the frozen North and West, but cold enough to have come directly from the land of eternal snow. At 6 o'clock last night the night promised to be even colder than the night before.

The proposed chorist union spoken of in yesterday's Times seems thus far to be a success and E. B. Wilson requests those who have received cards to meet at his home on Friday evening for organization.
